NuSTAR position angle
Focal plane detector image on the sky

Position angle is defined in the standard way as degrees East of North of the direction of the +DET1Y focal plane axis. At PA = 0 degrees the optical axis is (approximately 1 arcminute) NE of the center of the focal plane field of view.

NuSTAR Science Operations Center, Caltech